

ABSTRACT

Disclosed is a nozzle arrangement for the coextrusion of a product with at least two layers, whereby a distributor portion 14 adjacent to the extruder is provided through which an extruding mass is delivered to the extruder and whereby a nozzle portion 12 for the extrusion of the extrusion mass is connected to the distributor portion, whereby in accordance with the invention a mounting and connecting base is provided between the distributor portion and the nozzle portion.

1023576-434704